

USA GYMNASTICS

Women's National Team

Brittney Koncak

2001 World Championships Team Alternate

Hometown: McQueeney, Texas
Residence: McQueeney, Texas
Date/Place of Birth: March 27, 1985/Austin, Texas
Club: Harris Unlimited Gymnastics School
Coach: Michael and LaPrise Harris
School: Radiance Academy
Year in School: 11th grade (Fall '01)
Began Gymnastics: 1991
Favorite Event: Uneven Bars
Years on National Team: 4 (1996-97, 1997-98, 1999-20, 2001-02)
TOPS National Team: 1995

Personal Info

Koncak is the third child of Randy and Sharon Koncak. She has two brothers, Jacob and Jordan, and one older sister, Courtney. Jacob was a professional wakeboarder and Courtney played high school basketball. Koncak began gymnastics at age 6 to help improve her balance for water skiing. Her favorite subject is math and she would like to go to UCLA to study business management. Koncak was named an alternate to the 2001 World Championships team, but suffered an injury prior to the competition. Koncak's long term goals are to make the 2003 World Championships team and the 2004 Olympic Team. She has her own web site, www.brittneykoncak.com.

International Competition

- 2002 USA-Belgium Dual Meet, Houston, TX; 1st -Team, 2nd -AA, 2nd -V & FX
- 1999 Japan Junior International Championships, Yokohama City, Japan; 6th-AA, 1st -V
- 1999 Pontiac International Team Championships, Richmond, VA; 1st -Jr. Team, 1st -V

National Competition

- 2001 U.S. Gymnastics Championships, Philadelphia, Pa.; 8th-AA, 9th -V (tie), 7th -FX (tie)
- 2001 U.S. Classic, Pomona, Calif.
- 1999 John Hancock U.S. Gymnastics Championships, Sacramento, Calif.; 6th-AA, 5th -V, 6th-BB, 8th-FX, 9th -UB
- 1999 American Classic, Pomona, Calif.; 3rd -AA, 1st -V (tie), 2nd -FX, 4th -BB (Jr. Div.)
- 1999 U.S. Classic, Rochester, NY; 5th-AA, 1st -V
- 1997 Gymfest, Seattle, WA; 6th -AA (Jr. Div.)
- 1997 U.S. Challenge, Cincinnati, OH; 1st -AA, 2nd -V, 1st -UB, 2nd -BB, 2nd -FX (Jr. Div.)
- 1996 Gymfest, Colorado Springs, CO; 16th -AA (Jr. National Division)